

FIFI

FEARLESS

By Sajia Paulson

This is the Story of a girl named Fiji. She is so Ordinary girl though,
She had magic inside of her, She just didn't know it yet...

This is Fiji

She is 8 years old

She loves reading books and playing with her friends.

She's a kind and thoughtful girl and has a pure heart but is very very shy.

She recently moved to a new town with her family because her dad got a new job in the ricecrispy factory.

This is the first morning of my new life. I miss my friends, but I just have to get ready for school and forget about the past. I hope my new teacher is not too strict!

Joining the School

As I walked through the school gates my teeth were chattering, my hands were clattering, it was horrible...

So, I say to myself, "Class 4AB no, 3BW no, Ah! There, Class 6BD. As I walk into the classroom, all the children stop and stare at me. Just me. "Hello, class," said Miss Simpson. (My new teacher) "This is our new student, called Fiji." "Make her feel welcome." "OK Fiji, take a seat," she said.

I nervously look around for a seat. Then, a girl smiled at me and there was a spare seat next to her so I sat there.

After the lesson, my new friend introduced herself. Her name is Halle and

With her at lunch in the canteen, I was excited she wanted to be my friend.

I've been worried about my birthday coming up in two weeks! I need to do something brave to impress the other students or no one will come to my party.

OH MY GOODNESS!!

I never realised how many students were in the massive canteen.

There were at least 1,000 pupils or something!

It was so loud in the canteen, I could barely hear myself think. I felt so shy!

Luckily I had Halle by my side.

As we ate our lunch and chatted, little did I know, this moment was about to change my life forever...

Suddenly, we heard a long loud gong. Everyone was silent, not a whisper to be heard.

Someone had left the back door open and a grizzly bear stood here with an angry face.

All the students started running like maniacs and screaming.

Halle was frozen to the spot! Knew everyone had to get out safely but I couldn't get Halle to come with me.

← Bear

My moment

you know that magic I was talking about? well this is my time to use it.

My magic isn't any old magic, it's the courage I have inside of me.

I run to the kitchen and grab the biggest pot of honey. Then, I run to the bear and say, "here bear!"
Talle shouts "be careful Figi!"
Everyone looks at me.

The bear also looks at me.
I throw the pot of honey out the door.

The bear runs out to get the pot of honey and I quickly close the door behind him.

I hear a boy shout "Woah! She's fearless alright!" Then, I hear a girl shout "Figi - Fearless". Then out of nowhere, all the children shout "FFFearless,

Now do you see what you can do
When you use the courage inside of you?

Guess I won't have problems making friends in my new school!

eye H E E N O  is just the beginning !!!