

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are very excited to announce that on Thursday 21st November 2024, Joe Chambers and Andrew Crawford, presenters on CBeebies will be visiting the school. We are only one of five schools that have been able to secure this visit.

Every child in the school will have the opportunity to see them, children in Year R – 3 will see “The Rhyme Rocket” show and children in Year 4 – 6 will take part in the “TV Workshop”. Please see the attached leaflets regarding the event.

This is an extremely exciting opportunity which we are sure the children will enjoy. To help the school pay for this event, please can you make a payment of £3.50 via WisePay by Tuesday 19th November. WisePay can be accessed using the link on the front page of the school website: www.hillviewprimary.co.uk . Once you have accessed the link, please select ‘Trips and Visits,’ in the toolbar, on the left-hand side. Alternatively, payments can be made in cash (exact amounts please) at the school office.

By making payment for this visit, you are giving permission for your child to attend the shows. If we do not have permission, then your child will not be able to attend the show. If you need support making payment, please speak to the office, who will deal with this confidentially.

Yours sincerely

The presenters of hit BBC Children's show 'The Rhyme Rocket' are visiting from Manchester to run their Television and Media Workshop.

This creative session will take place in school and aims to give children an insight into what happens inside a TV studio.

The duo will discuss their experience of working for the BBC, as well as impart an understanding of the various career paths within the media industry.

The workshop will conclude with a Q & A followed by a teaser of their high-energy live touring production The Ridiculous Rhyme Show
